Short CV for Reana Steyn

Deputy Ombudsman

at the Office of the Credit Ombud, South Africa

Reana holds a BCom and a LLB degree. After completing articles with one of the leading law firms in Johannesburg, Norton Rose Fulbright, she was admitted as an attorney and remained with the firm. Reana practiced in the insurance division where she gained extensive experience in High Court litigation and specialized in medical negligence and aviation law. After a couple of years Reana joined a large short term insurer as Legal advisor, where she also handled litigation matters and advised on policy interpretations.

Her career then took a different course when she joined the newly established National Credit Regulator in 2006 as their legal advisor. In this role Reana presented at numerous seminars and conducted training sessions on the new National Credit Act across the country. In 2010 she joined the office of the Credit Ombud and in 2013 she was appointed as Deputy Ombudsman.
